A word from your pastor....

My beloved church family,
The wonder of Easter is upon us. We will celebrate together as a church family on Palm Sunday, Good Friday night and Easter Sunday morning. Never let us forget the magnitude of that which we celebrate during this time of the year. Jesus explained His purpose in a single sentence. In Luke 19:10, Christ said, "For the Son of Man has come to seek and to save that which was lost." Dispatched from heaven, Jesus would take the initiative to intervene in a dire set of circumstances. Without His compassionate action of intervention, all of mankind would be still stumbling helplessly immersed in our sin. And, that sin has consequences, namely, death. But, in spite of our hostility to God, He would place his own Son between helpless humanity and the righteous wrath we all deserve. Easter is more than the story of a heroic martyr. Passionate people die for causes, both good and bad, every day. However, Easter celebrates the wonder of God's love for us and the extreme lengths to which He would go to buy us back from the power of sin and death. It would take something as drastic as the cross to overcome the weight of humanity's sin. Thus, we will corporately celebrate what God did as an act of love restoration. In the same way that Jesus energetically sought out the lost, I hope your plans also include bringing someone with you for this wonderful week of worship.

WMU Meetings at SFBC

April 1-Jean Albright Circle, Chapel 7:00 p.m.

April 2-Mary Sampson Circle, Chapel 10:00 a.m.

Our special guest speaker at the Mary Sampson WMU meeting on April 2 is Karen Wright. Karen recently retired after years of service to the International Mission Board in Chile. She is now working with refugees and immigrants in Lexington in the Immanuel Baptist Church. She is also employed as a translator for doctors whose patients speak no English. Karen is from eastern KY.

This is a great opportunity to hear a foreign missionary right here in our church. Everyone is welcome to join us, both men and women.

Women's Night Out

Tuesday, April 23, 6:30 p.m.

Meet at Cattleman's Shelbyville for a carefree evening of good food, fun and fellowship!

STAFF ANNIVERSARY

Congratulations to Stacie Stivers for completing her first year of service this month as Ministry Assistant to the students and kids ministries, and the weekday preschool. Stacie is likely to be the one to answer the phone when you call, and is always willing to assist where needed. Thank you Stacie for being part of our team!

Thank You Church

Thank you, church family, for the visits and prayers while my Mom, Audrey Harris, was a patient in Palliative Care at Baptist East. I appreciated the visits from Pastor Maurice and Gene and Joanna Wright who were there to support me. I would also like to thank Pastor Maurice, Gene Wright and Paul Sims for their roles in making Mom's Celebration of Life service perfect. In addition, I appreciated the food provided by the Bereavement team. It's times like these when you realize how important your church family is to you. God bless you!

Student Mission Week

Backyard Bible Clubs

April 1-5

Our students will spend the second week of spring break serving Shelbyville. We will invite kids and families in a local neighborhood to participate in Backyard Bible Clubs. The week will conclude with service in Louisville at Water Step, an area charity that uses clean water and hygiene as a means to share the Gospel. All students are encouraged to join us. Our church family is asked to support this week with prayer, canned goods, and used shoes.
