A word from your pastor....

My beloved church family,

We are on the brink of one of my favorite times of our church year. When we join together with 40+ churches from all over Shelby County and pool our people, resources and prayers, something beautiful comes together. We call it "Touched Twice." Together, we pray to touch both physical and spiritual needs. As much as want to do great things, ultimately it has to be touched by God before we can truly touch others in His name. Recently, I was engaged in a personal quiet time. I read: Isaiah 40:15-17 (NASB) "Behold, the nations are like a drop from a bucket, and are regarded as a speck of dust on the scales; Behold, He lifts up the islands like fine dust. Even Lebanon is not enough to burn, nor its beasts enough for a burnt offering. All the nations are as nothing before Him, They are regarded by Him as less than nothing and meaningless."

Whatever our challenges or obstacles, in the grand scheme of things, they are so insignificant, whereas the wonder and the power of God overshadows our meager distractions. We must pray for His anointing. We must call out for His presence, and we must leave the ultimate spiritual results in His hands. I hope you will intentionally choose to be a part of this endeavor on March 9, 2019. Along those lines, I hope you will choose to worship with us on March 8, 2019. I will be the keynote speaker, and Paul Sims will lead the musical praise that night. Spiritual battles are fought first in prayer and worship. Don't underestimate the importance of this component of the weekend. Together, as a church family and in conjunction with many other church families, I look forward to the joint Kingdom efforts.

Bzo. Maurice

at expressing ourselves through the written word. We hope to encourage members to think about telling their own life stories to children and grandchildren through their own writing. We are challenged to write a short essay on a suggested topic for each bi-monthly meeting. The topic for March is "Spring". Please consider joining this fun group! Here is a submission from the January assignment.

MY FAVORITE TIME OF THE YEAR

As I have grown older, I find that my likes and dislikes have changed just like my taste for foods. When I was young, my favorite time of year was spring. Living on the farm, spring was a time when things began to come alive. The air was filled with the smell of burning plant beds, fresh plowed ground and other scents found only in the country where I lived. It was a time when we began to open doors and windows and let the fresh air in.

I never liked autumn. It was a sad time for me, seemed everything was dying, all the color of summer was gone and the earth looked lifeless and bleak. Long winter days lay ahead. But as I have attained my senior years I discovered I really like autumn. Maybe it is because I am in the autumn and winter season of life that I view these changes differently. I now see it not as a time of death and dreary days but as a time for nature to take a rest. A time to slow down, relax, move at a slower pace, and focus on activities that require less energy. This can include such activities as reading and sewing and maybe a little quilting. Where before I saw the drab and dreariness of that season, I now see that in autumn there is beauty and color in the autumn flowers and leaves. My most favorite time is the Thanksgiving and Christmas seasons. Seems people become more loving and caring during this time of year. I would love to see more emphasis on Thanksgiving. Our churches seldom mention this day of thanks. I have also lost a lot of my excitement about Christmas because it has lost its true DOOMER meaning. It is all about material things. I still prefer to live where we have four seasons. Oh, by the way, I really like the snow. JOYCE SANFORD

Unfinished Stories

We are all unfinished stories
As life continues on its way.
We're building each new chapter
With the things we do each day.

Each story is very special, So unique to each its own. Fate is the director of our lives As tomorrow is unknown.

Our stories speak of highs and lows
As events will come and go.
We strive to find acceptance
Within the ebb and flow.

Our stories will be finished, That's the rule of life we're in, But, by loving one another God will count them as a win.

Called from darkness into light, Our pathway shines above, A story without ending Found in God's enduring love.
